CHAPEL HAPPENINGS

SUMMER 2017

Dear Friends,

As I write it is still sweater weather here on Fishers, and we felt fortunate for even a glimpse of sun this week! But signs of summer are coming – flowers blooming, mowers mowing, the ferry getting busier -- and here at church we are planning special events for the season.

What is the role of a church in its community? Our programs throughout the year are an attempt to answer that faithfully. The church is called to be a place to be together for worship and fellowship, but also a place from which we disperse to carry on the work of God. German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer wrote that "the church must share in the secular problems of ordinary life, not dominating but helping and serving."

Here at Union Chapel, I urge us to continue to be that community within our community where God's mercy and hope can be experienced and shared. God's grace can be known anywhere we happen to be – in our beaches, businesses, and board meetings.

Like Paul, let us never doubt the power of Christian witness to touch lives, or offer hope in situations that may seem dark. From prison he encouraged the church at Philippi with these words:

Do all things without murmuring or arguing, so that you may be blameless and innocent, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, in which you shine like stars in the world. Phil 2:14-15

I pray that we might all abide in God's love more deeply, and that opportunities abound this summer for us to shine the light and love of God to our community. Our call is no less. What a great privilege!

Grace and peace,

Candy

Thrift Shop Opens in June!

From Mary, who returned last month and is hard at work getting us up and running for Summer 2017...

The Thrift Shop desperately needs volunteers.

Please call Mary @788-7250 if you could help in any way. The Shop will open for the season as soon as it's ship-shape!

We still collect empty egg cartons and metal coffee cans. We also like paper shopping bags with handles and the clear plastic zip bags that linens are packed in (sheet, comforter or any size).

The Thrift Shop accepts gently used household items, clothing and small pieces of furniture. Pieces that have worn out their welcome in your home are always welcome in ours (if they are salable).

Because of safety issues and the environment, the Thrift Shop cannot accept donations of: air conditioners, auto parts, bathroom/kitchen fixtures, high chairs, cribs, car seats, strollers, play pens, CRT (tube) TVs, flammable materials, furniture that is heavily soiled/broken/ripped, guns and ammunition, halogen lamps, hazardous chemicals, large appliances, mattresses and box springs, non-working small appliances, exercise equipment, paints, and wet or heavily soiled textiles.

Friendly Reminder

Donate your old eyeglasses in the basket in the Fellowship Room.

Thank you!

"Lord, if you can't make me a better boy,

We were delighted also to have with us the Class of 2018 raffling off a session with a professional photographer!

Church School

Wrap-up

By Laura Edwards

We wish to thank Laura who will be retiring from leading church school this June. We send her off this month with our heartfelt thanks and admiration for bringing years of love and a special gift for teaching to our young disciples.

Our little ones were big on enthusiasm!

This year with the Pre-K and Kindergarten class I used “Favorite Bible Stories” from the All-in-One Bible Fun series. We learned about the faithfulness of the great men and women from the Bible, including Jacob, Joseph, Ruth, Hannah, Samuel, David and Jonathan. Each lesson was accompanied by a hands-on-activity, a song, and a scripture verse. The children are particularly fond of music and love to sing and dance.

God’s love, loving and helping others, and friendship were recurring themes in our curriculum.

The children were very enthusiastic about church school. I enjoyed them immensely!

“Abraham’s Stars” - Grades 3-5

Since Christmas we have studied about Abram’s call in Genesis 12:1-9 and God’s promise to Abram, “I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.” We made our own maps of his journey to Canaan, and discussed how we’ve been blessed and how we can be a blessing to others.

We then read and discussed God’s words to Abram when he told him, “Look toward heaven and number the stars, if you are able to number them. So shall your descendants be.” The children made their own individual stars with their pictures and personal information and we put them on the bulletin board entitled Abraham’s stars.

Our lessons continued with the birth of Isaac and the rivalry between Esau and Jacob, who tricked Esau into giving him his inheritance. Discussion followed on fairness and justice.

We used “Miss Lea’s Bible Stories for Children” by Rosemary Lea. We read the story of Jacob’s sons and his treatment of Joseph who was his favorite, the jealousy of his ten brothers and of their selling him to traders, about Joseph’s life in Egypt, and of how his brothers came to Egypt to become the Children of Israel. (continued)

We came to Exodus and learned about Moses and his efforts to free the Israelites from slavery in Egypt. This unit focused on the ten plagues of Egypt, and the crossing of the Red Sea, and Moses's receiving the Ten Commandments.

In April we went to the Race Rock Garden greenhouse and planted seeds for sale at the Spring Fair. We wish to thank Jeff Edwards for his help.

I have really enjoyed working with this group, watching them grow and mature over the years. They are children of whom we should be very proud!

THE OPEN BOOK GROUP

Continues its Study of World Religions

On Monday, June 5 the Open Book Group gathered to continue our study of other religions. Having looked at Islam last year, this spring we tackled Buddhism as presented by Stephen Prothero in his book God is Not One.

In our study we learned highlights of this “religion” – which may not be the most accurate label since not all Buddhists believe in spiritual beings. Of interest were key events in the life of its founder, Siddhartha Gautama, as well as learning about The Four Noble Truths, observations about suffering and how to overcome it. Our study also touched on the accessibility of nirvana and the different types of Buddhism that are practiced today. We found contrasts with Christianity, for example, in the way Buddhism views “the self” as a construct, and not an “Absolute Truth.” Christianity teaches each human is uniquely made in God’s image with a soul.

Interestingly, although meditation and mindfulness have been popular in the West, neither is actually a prominent aspect of Buddhism. In response to criticism that Buddhism is too individualistic, “engaged Buddhism” has gained adherents as it incorporates acts of compassion into one’s spiritual life.

In September we will resume our study with Hinduism.
